2. RECORDAL

- 2.1 This Manual applies to each Group Entity individually as a Responsible Party and provides the detail of the procedures that each Group Entity will follow regarding the Processing of Personal Information and access thereto.
- 2.2 Nothing in this Manual should be construed as meaning that any Group Entity is liable for the acts or omissions of another Group Entity.
- 2.3 Any Group Entity may amend this Manual and any amendment shall become effective on the date of publication of such amendment on such Group Entity's website (if any) or as otherwise determined by such Group Entity. It remains the obligation of all Data Subjects and Clients to regularly familiarise themselves with the latest version of this Manual.

3. SUMMARY

- 3.1 POPIA, amongst others, promotes the protection of Personal Information Processed by public and private bodies and gives effect to, amongst others, the constitutional right to privacy (subject to justifiable limitations) and of access to information that is held by another Person and that is required for the exercise or protection of any rights;
- 3.2 If a Person wishes to gain access to Personal Information or records thereof to which he/she/it does not have an automatic right, but which is required to protect his/her/its own rights, such Person must follow and comply with the procedure and requirements set out in this Manual, to request such Personal Information from the relevant Group Entity and to gain access thereto as envisaged in, amongst others, Sections 23 and 25 of POPIA;

- 3.3 A Person's constitutional right to privacy and of access to Personal Information is not absolute and is subject to justifiable limitations as envisaged in POPIA and set out in more detail in paragraph 9 of this Manual;
- 3.4 This Manual provides the information as prescribed by PAIA and serves to inform Requesters of records and Personal Information, of procedural and other requirements that a request must meet, provides information regarding the types of records and Personal Information held by each Group Entity as well as the grounds for refusal or partial refusal of a request for access thereto.

4. PROCESSING OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

- 4.1 Each Group Entity regards the privacy and protection of Personal Information of utmost importance and only Processes Personal Information in accordance with the requirements, conditions for lawful processing and other prescriptions as provided in POPIA and other relevant legislation;
- 4.2 Each Group Entity Processes Personal Information for various purposes, as envisaged in POPIA and as set out in this Manual. Each Group Entity maintains a separate privacy policy that contains the purposes for Processing of Personal Information and other information as prescribed in terms of Section 18 of POPIA. Each Group Entity's privacy policy is available on its website (if any) or at its place of business (if it does not have a website);
- 4.3 A Group Entity will Process Personal Information only if the following conditions for lawful processing as provided in POPIA, are complied with:
- 4.3.1 Responsible Party to ensure conditions for lawful processing: Each Group Entity shall ensure that the conditions set out in Chapter 3 of POPIA are complied with at the time of the determination of the purpose and means of the Processing and during the Processing itself;
- 4.3.2 Processing limitation: Each Group Entity shall Process Personal Information lawfully and in a reasonable manner that does not infringe the privacy of the Data Subject and only Process it if, given the purpose for which it is processed, it is adequate, relevant and not excessive. In this regard, each Group Entity shall when necessary, obtain the consent as prescribed by POPIA, shall only Process Personal Information if it is acceptable as envisaged in POPIA and shall allow a Data Subject to object to the Processing of Personal Information on reasonable grounds, as provided in POPIA. Each Group Entity shall collect Personal Information directly from the Data Subject, except as otherwise provided in POPIA;
- 4.3.3 Purpose specification: Each Group Entity shall only collect Personal Information for a specific, explicitly defined (as later herein set out) and lawful purpose related to a function or activity of such Group Entity. Each Group Entity shall not retain records of Personal Information any longer than is necessary for achieving the purpose for which it was collected or subsequently Processed unless such Group Entity is allowed to do so in terms of POPIA. Each Group Entity shall retain a record of Personal Information of a Data Subject that it has used to make a decision about the Data Subject as prescribed by POPIA and will destroy a record of Personal Information as soon as practicable after such Group Entity is no longer authorised to retain such record in terms of POPIA. Each Group Entity will restrict the Processing of Personal Information under the circumstances as provided in POPIA and will inform the Data Subject before lifting the restriction on the Processing;

- 4.3.4 Further Processing Limitation: Each Group Entity will ensure that further Processing of Personal Information will be in accordance or compatible with the purpose for which it was collected as provided in paragraph 4.3.3 above, taking into account all the factors prescribed by POPIA;
- 4.3.5 Information quality: Each Group Entity will take reasonably practicable steps to ensure that the Personal Information is complete, accurate, not misleading and updated where necessary, having regard to the purpose for which such Personal Information is collected or further Processed;
- 4.3.6 Openness: Each Group Entity shall maintain the documentation of all Processing operations under its responsibility as provided in PAIA and shall take reasonably practicable steps to ensure that a Data Subject is aware of the information and matters as provided in Section 18 of POPIA and more fully described in the privacy notice referred to in paragraph 4.2 of this Manual;
- 4.3.7 Security safeguards: Each Group Entity shall secure the integrity and confidentiality of Personal Information in its possession or under its control by taking appropriate, reasonable technical and organisational measures to prevent loss of, damage to or unauthorised destruction of Personal Information and unlawful access to or Processing of Personal Information. In order to comply with its aforesaid obligations, each Group Entity will take the measures as prescribed by POPIA and will have due regard to generally accepted information security practices and procedures which may apply to it generally or may be required in terms of specific industry or professional rules and regulations. If a Group Entity uses an Operator, such Group Entity shall procure that the Operator (including an Operator in a foreign country) complies with the provisions applicable to it in terms of or as envisaged in POPIA and ensure that the contract between such Group Entity and the Operator provides that the Operator must establish and maintain the security measures as provided or envisaged in POPIA. Each Group Entity shall notify the Information Regulator and the Data Subject if there are reasonable grounds to believe that the Personal Information of a Data Subject has been accessed or acquired by an unauthorised person, as provided in POPIA;

- 4.3.8 Data Subject participation: Each Group Entity acknowledges that a Data Subject who has provided adequate proof of identity, has the right to request a Group Entity to confirm, free of charge, whether or not such Group Entity holds Personal Information about the Data Subject and to request from such Group Entity, the record or a description of the Personal Information about the Data Subject held by such Group Entity, including the information as specifically provided by POPIA, which will be provided within a reasonable time, at a prescribed fee (if any), in a reasonable manner and format and in a form that is generally understandable. Each Group Entity will provide the Data Subject with a written estimate of the fee that the Data Subject must pay for services provided to the Data Subject relating to the Data Subject's request for the record or description of the Personal Information as aforesaid, and may require the applicant to pay deposit for all or part of the fee. Each Group Entity will refuse to disclose any information requested (or part thereof) to which the grounds for refusal as set out in paragraph 9 of this Manual. Each Group Entity will inform a Data Subject that he/she/it has the right to request the Group Entity to the correct or delete Personal Information about the Data Subject in the Group Entity's possession or under its control, and to destroy or delete a record of Personal Information about the Data Subject that the Group Entity is no longer authorised to retain, as provided in POPIA. Each Group Entity shall as soon as reasonably practicable, correct the information, destroy or delete the information, provide the Data Subject, to his or her satisfaction, with credible evidence in support of the information and where agreement cannot be reached between the Group Entity and the Data Subject, and if the Data Subject so requests, take such steps as are reasonable in the circumstances, to attach the information in such manner that it will always be read with the information and an indication that a correction of the information has been requested but has not been made. Each Group Entity shall comply with the other provisions of POPIA and PAIA in this regard;
- 4.4 No Group Entity will Process Special Personal Information in contravention of POPIA;
- 4.5 No Group Entity will Process Personal Information in respect of children in contravention of POPIA;
- 4.6 No Group Entity will supply Personal Information of Data Subjects to any third parties, except if it is obliged to provide such Personal Information in terms of the law;
- 4.7 A Group Entity will disclose Personal Information to government authorities only as provided by law.

5. ACCESS TO RECORDS HELD BY GROUP ENTITY

- 5.1 Records held by a Group Entity may be accessed only once the prerequisite requirements for access have been met and on condition that the request is made in the form prescribed by PAIA (as later herein set out) and addressed to the Group Entity at its address, fax number or e-mail address;
- 5.2 A Requester has the right to submit a request for access to records and Personal Information, on condition that he/she/it has provided to the relevant Group Entity, acceptable proof of his/her/its identity and after payment of any fee required by law (if applicable) as set out in Annexure 2;
- 5.3 A Group Entity will provide access to the requested information or access to its records regarding a Requester's Personal Information on condition that the requirements of this Manual, POPIA, PAIA and any other relevant legislation (if any) have been met and the prescribed fees as set out in Annexure 2, has been paid;
- 5.4 Any Requester is entitled to request access to records and/or Personal Information of third parties on condition that he/she/it has complied with the requirements for access as provided in PAIA and that he/she/it has paid the reasonable fees as determined by the relevant Group Entity, set out in Annexure 2;
- 5.5 If a public body lodges a request for access to records or Personal Information, the public body must comply with the provisions of PAIA and/or POPIA, and must amongst others, provide sufficient detail to enable the relevant Group Entity to determine if such request is in the public interest, as required in terms of the law;
- 5.6 Each Group Entity will respond to a request for access to records or Personal Information, within a reasonable time as determined in view of the particular circumstances prevailing at the time.

6. PRESCRIBED FEES

- 6.1 A Requester shall be liable for all fees as prescribed by PAIA, including a request fee and an access fee. A list of the applicable fees is attached to this Manual as Annexure 2;
- 6.2 On receipt of a request for access to a record in the form prescribed by PAIA, a Group Entity's Information Officer shall by notice require the Requester to pay the prescribed request fee (if any) before further processing of the request;
- 6.3 If the search for the record has been made and the preparation of the record for disclosure, including arrangement to make it available in the requested form, requires more than the hours prescribed in the regulations issued in terms of PAIA for this purpose, the Information Officer shall notify the Requester to pay as a deposit the prescribed portion (being not more than one third) of the access fee which would be payable if the request is granted;

- 6.4 The Information Officer may withhold a record until the Requester has paid the applicable fees.
- 6.5 A Requester whose request for access to a record has been granted, must pay an access fee for reproduction and for search and preparation, and for any time reasonably required more than the prescribed hours to search for and prepare the record for disclosure including planning to make it available in the requested form.
- 6.6 If a deposit has been paid in respect of a request for access which is refused, then the Information Officer must repay the deposit to the Requester.

7. RECORDS THAT CANNOT BE FOUND OR DO NOT EXIST

- 7.1 If all reasonable steps have been taken to find a record requested and there are reasonable grounds for believing that the record is in the Group Entity's possession but cannot be found or does not exist, then Head of the Group Entity must by way of affidavit or affirmation notify the Requester that it is not possible to give access to the requested record;
- 7.2 The affidavit or affirmation shall give a full account of all the steps taken to find the record in question or to determine whether the record exist, including all communications with every person who conducted the search on behalf of Head of the Group Entity;
- 7.3 The notice referred to in paragraph 7.1 of this Manual shall be regarded as a decision to refuse a request for access to the record concerned;
- 7.4 If after the notice as provided in paragraph 7.1 of this Manual is given, the record in question is found, the Requester concerned shall be given access to the record, unless access is refused by as provided in PAIA and as set out in this Manual.

8. DECISION

- 8.1 A Head of a Group Entity to whom a request was made shall as soon as possible but in any event within 30 days after the request has been received, decide whether to grant or refuse the request and notify the Requester of the decision in the prescribed manner, including adequate reasons for refusal;
- 8.2 The 30 day period referred to above may be extended for a further period of not more than 30 days if the request is for a large number of records or requires a search through a large number of records and compliance with the original period of 30 days will unreasonably interfere with the activities of the Group Entity or the request requires a search for records in, or collection thereof, from an office of the Group Entity not situated in the same town or city as the office of the Head of the Group Entity that cannot reasonably be completed within the original period or if the Requester consents in writing to such extension;

- 8.3 If the Head of the Group Entity fails to give the decision on a request for access to the Requester concerned within the abovementioned time periods, the Head of the Group Entity will be regarded as having refused the request.

9. GROUNDS FOR REFUSAL OF ACCESS TO RECORDS

- 9.1 A Group Entity must refuse a request for access to a record, under the following circumstances as provided in PAIA:

9.1.1 Mandatory protection of privacy of a third party who is a natural person, if disclosure would involve the unreasonable disclosure of Personal Information about a third party, including a deceased individual, subject to the further provisions of PAIA;

9.1.2 Mandatory protection of commercial information of a third party, if the record contains trade secrets of such third party, financial, commercial, scientific or technical information, the disclosure of which would be likely to cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of that third party or information supplied in confidence by a third party, the disclosure of which could reasonably be expected to put that third party at a disadvantage in contractual or other negotiations or to prejudice that third party in commercial competition;

9.1.3 Mandatory protection of certain confidential information of third party, if disclosing such records would constitute an action for breach of a duty of confidence owed to a third party in terms of any agreement;

9.1.4 Mandatory protection of safety of individuals, and protection of property, if the disclosure could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of an individual or if disclosure would be likely to prejudice or impair the security of a building, structure or system, including a computer or communication system, a means of transport or any other property or methods, systems, plans or procedures for the protection of an individual in accordance with a witness protection scheme, the safety of the public or any part of the public or the security of property contemplated herein;

9.1.5 Mandatory protection of records privileged from production in legal proceedings, if the requested record is privileged from production in legal proceedings;

- 9.1.6 Commercial information of a private body, if the requested record contains trade secrets of any Group Entity or financial, commercial, scientific or technical information of any Group Entity, the disclosure of which could reasonably be expected to put any Group Entity at a disadvantage in contractual or other negotiations or to prejudice any Group Entity in commercial competition or is a computer program owned by any Group Entity;
- 9.1.7 Mandatory protection of research information of a third party and protection of research information of any Group Entity, if the record contains information about research being or to be carried out by or on behalf of a third party or any Group Entity, the disclosure of which would be likely to expose the third party or any Group Entity or any person that is or will be carrying out the research on behalf of the third party or any Group Entity or the subject matter of the research, to serious disadvantage;
- 9.2 Mandatory disclosure in public interest: If a request for access to record would reveal evidence of substantial contravention of, or failure to comply with, the law or imminent or serious public safety or environmental risk and the public interest in the disclosure of the record clearly outweighs the harm contemplated in the provision in question, the Head of the Group Entity must grant such request for access to a record.

10. REMEDIES AVAILABLE WHEN A GROUP ENTITY REFUSES A REQUEST FOR ACCESS TO RECORDS AND/OR PERSONAL INFORMATION

- 10.1 No Group Entity has internal appeal procedures and consequently the decision made by the Information Officer is final. Any Requestor who is dissatisfied with any decision must exercise external remedies available to him/her/it if the request for access to records and/or Personal Information is refused;
- 10.2 Subject to the provisions of PAIA, a Requestor who is dissatisfied with a decision regarding access to records, may within the time limits prescribed by PAIA, apply to a court with jurisdiction for relief or lodge a complaint to the Information Regulator.

11.5 The following is the detail to facilitate a request for access to a record of a Group Entity, as contemplated in POPIA and PAIA:

A Requester for access to records of a Group Entity must note the following when submitting a request for access to records of a Group Entity:

- 11.5.1 The Requester must comply with all the requirements relating to the request for access to a record of a Group Entity, as provided in PAIA;
- 11.5.2 The Requester must complete and sign the form prescribed in terms of PAIA. A copy of such form is enclosed in this Manual as Annexure 1. The form is also available in a fill-in format on the website of the Information Regulator. The prescribed form must be completed with sufficient detail to enable the Information Officer of the relevant Group Entity to (i) identify the record/s requested, (ii) verify the identity of the Requester, (iii) establish the manner of access which is required, (iv) establish the postal address or email address of the Requester and (v) to establish the right on which the Requester relies for access to the requested records. The Requester must thereafter submit the duly completed and signed form to the relevant Group Entity at its postal or physical address or email address as recorded in paragraph 11.1 of this Manual, marked for the attention of the relevant Information Officer;
- 11.5.3 The Requester must simultaneously with submission of the abovementioned form, pay to the Information Officer of the relevant Group Entity, the applicable request fee and other fees as well as a deposit (if applicable) as set out in Annexure 2 to this Manual;
- 11.5.4 It is important for a Requester to note that access to the records must be necessary for the exercise or protection of the relevant right relied upon by the Requester;
- 11.5.5 Subject to the provisions of PAIA in respect of extensions, a Group Entity will process a request for access to such Group Entity's records within 30 days from the date when the request was received by the Group and the applicable fees were paid, or within the period of any extension;

- 11.5.6 Where a Requester has requested access to a record in respect of a third party, such third party may be afforded 21 days in which to make representations to require that access to the requested record be refused or to give written consent for the disclosure of the record to the Requester;
- 11.5.7 A Group Entity may be prohibited to provide access to a record as requested by a Requestor if such Group Entity is prohibited to do so in terms of the law (including POPIA) or a court order;
- 11.5.8 The Requester shall be informed whether access to the requested record has been granted or refused, in the manner indicated by the Requester in Part H of Annexure 1. If access to the requested record is refused, the Requester is entitled to a refund of the fees paid, in which instance, the Group Entity will refund the Requester by paying such refund into a bank account as indicated by the Requester in writing;
- 11.5.9 If a request for access to a record is made by a Requester on behalf of another Person, the Requester must submit to the Group Entity proof of the Requester's authority to act on behalf of such other Person, which proof must be acceptable to the Information Officer of such Group Entity;
